

CHESTER SPRINGS LIBRARY RECEIVES NATIONAL GRANT

Chester Springs Library has been chosen to participate in Libraries Transforming Communities: Focus on Small and Rural Libraries. The library will partner with the Environmental Advisory Council (EAC) and use the $3,000 award to hold the following Community Conversations on renewable energy and how it could be part of the township's future:

June 5 @ 4PM – Renewable energy, tips and opportunities to utilize right now in your home and your community. Bring a lawn chair or blanket to sit on and join us at the amphitheater behind the township building. Special guests at this conversation will be Dennis Rowan, Community Renewable Energy Expert and Ronald Fisher, E.D. The Energy Co-op. Rain date is June 6.

July 26 @ 7PM – Book discussion of How to Avoid a Climate Disaster, by Bill Gates and The Future We Choose, by Christine Figueres. Read one or both books and join Chester Springs Library at Pine Creek Park. In the event of rain, a Zoom link will be published on the library website.

September 11 @ 4PM – Renewable energy for a sustainable future and how we can use local and regional accomplishments to create a sustainable future. Bring a lawn chair or blanket to sit on and join us at the amphitheater behind the township building. Special guests at this Community Conversation will be Paula Kline, Sustainability Expert and Jess Cadorette, Conservation Voters of PA. Rain date is September 12.
